Maine Right to Life Committee is pleased to announce hosting the 7th annual *Respect Life Day at the Capitol.

This is a wonderful educational opportunity by which to showcase Maine's extensive respect life presence to our lawmakers in a highly visible and informational manner. Respect Life Day at the Capitol will be held in Augusta on Wednesday, February 12 at the Hall of Flags from 9AM-1PM (State House Capitol Building, 2nd Floor). On that day, respect life organizations from across the state will convene in the State Capitol and provide legislators and the public with pro-life exhibits/displays

Please be aware this is not a rally, march, or protest. It is an informational, educational venue for legislators, staff, and those visiting the Capitol on that day.

This event provides a great venue by which to speak with respect life leaders. Learn first-hand what's new and exciting in Maine's respect life movement. Learn what you can do to become a more effective advocate for Maine's vulnerable, at all stages of development.

Although each participating respect life organization provides a unique area in which to promote the culture of life, we all share the same unwavering mission: To protect and support the precious gift of life by offering compassionate, life-affirming alternatives by which to erode the culture of death.

ALSO---this could be an ideal time to schedule an appointment with your local Representatives and discuss with him/her the importance of their respect life vote(s.)
